Please note that most employment leads are time sensitive and can be filled or end at any time. If you see a position that is of interest apply immediately. Dress well even when just picking up an application, you never know who may be watching. When picking up the application you should inquire about the hiring process so that you know what to expect from each possible employer. Apply anywhere you would like to work even if they are not currently advertising. Many employers begin the hiring process from current applications on-hand when hiring needs arise.
